

Andrew Giel

andrewgiel.com | agiel@cs.stanford.edu | (714) 913-8891

Personal Achievements

---

- Expected 2015: BS in Computer Science – Artificial Intelligence Track. Current GPA 3.4/4.0
- Graduated rank 1 of 469 with 4.64/4.0 GPA from Tustin High School
- Co-founded and co-managed iOS development company as a senior in high school
- Helped ideate and create iOS app. App hit #2 in Free Apps in Apple AppStore
- Received Gavel (First Place) at Genoa International Model United Nations Conference

Technical Skills

---

Languages

Python
Java
C/C++
SQL

Techniques

Machine Learning
Computer Vision
NLP
Network Analysis

Frameworks

NetworkX
OpenCV
NumPy
Git

Work Experience

---

Personal Computer Science Teacher | Self-Employed | September 2013 – Present | Stanford, CA
Taught introductory computer science to middle school students. This involved both creating curriculum and in-person instruction

Engineering Intern | SocialInSOMA | June 2013 – September 2013 | San Francisco, CA
Created testing frameworks that dealt with MongoDB and Solr in order to help push development for launch

Student Fundraiser | RuffaloCODY | November 2011 – June 2013 | Stanford, CA
Called alumni, enticing them to give back to the University in the form of a charitable gift

Web Assistant | Nature's Flavors | April 2011 – August 2011 | Orange, CA
Managed E-Commerce for website

Math Tutor | Self-Employed | September 2010 – June 2011 | Tustin, CA
Tutored in Pre-Algebra and Algebra 2

About Me

---

I don't take myself too seriously, but I am passionate about what I do
I really enjoy experimental electronic music. I try to listen to new music everyday
I've been to Russia, Italy, Mexico, and the Bahamas. I look forward to travelling more in the future
I received a Cease and Desist Letter before I turned 18
I keep a notebook full of ideas with me. I hope to start my own company with one of these ideas
I frequent Facebook, Twitter, Reddit, Soundcloud, and Hacker News